Special Investigations
Involving U.S. Presidents and Their Admins Since 1973

Second Update – August 13, 2019*

Report Commissioned by the A-Mark Foundation

www.amarkfoundation.org

*Original Post – April 3, 2018
First update, April 16, 2019, and Second Update include updated Statement of Expenditures from Special Counsel
Robert S. Mueller’s investigation.
Overview

The A-Mark Foundation commissioned this report on special investigations involving presidents and those close to them following the appointment of Special Counsel Robert S. Mueller to investigate possible collusion among President Donald J. Trump, his presidential campaign and Russia in the 2016 U.S. presidential election. That investigation concluded on March 22, 2019.

This report, with the exception of some commentary for historical context on the appointment of the first special prosecutor investigation,¹ initiated by President Ulysses S. Grant in 1875, effectively begins with the Watergate investigation of President Richard M. Nixon in 1973. The report concludes with the end of the investigation into Trump’s 2016 presidential campaign.

Our criteria for the special investigations of the eight presidents [Barack H. Obama and his administration were not investigated] versus the investigations in the Appendix are as follows:

The eight special investigations beginning in 1973 are investigations by special prosecutors/independent counsels/special counsels that began with possible offence(s) tied directly or indirectly to the president in office, and the investigation of President Gerald R. Ford which began with the investigation of President Nixon; the 22 special investigations in the Appendix are either prior to 1973, or when the investigations seemingly involved personal behavior or actions not tied directly or indirectly to administration business or action.

Excluded in this work entirely are investigations of presidents and their administrations when they did not involve a Special Prosecutor, Independent Counsel or Special Counsel, such as the impeachment of President Andrew Johnson on Feb. 24, 1868, that occurred in the House of Representatives.²

¹ Sarah Pruitt, “The Whiskey Ring and America’s First Special Prosecutor,” History.com, May 18, 2017
² “President Andrew Johnson impeached,” History.com, accessed on March 28, 2018
Table of Contents

I. SUMMARY: U.S. PRESIDENTIAL SPECIAL PROSECUTOR / INDEPENDENT COUNSEL / SPECIAL COUNSEL INVESTIGATIONS 1973 TO 2019 ................................................................. 4

II. CHARTS OF SUMMARY METRICS ........................................................................ 9
   1. Chart: Total Cost of Each Investigation in 2017 Dollars .................................... 9
   2. Chart: Total Number of Days of Each Investigation ....................................... 10
   3. Chart: Cost per Day of Each Investigation in 2017 Dollars ................................ 11

III. A SUMMARY OF THE DIFFERENCES AMONG THE TITLES SPECIAL PROSECUTOR / INDEPENDENT COUNSEL / SPECIAL COUNSEL .................................. 12

IV. SPECIAL PROSECUTOR / INDEPENDENT COUNSEL / SPECIAL COUNSEL INVESTIGATIONS INVOLVING U.S. PRESIDENTS AND THEIR ADMINS .................. 14
   1. Richard M. Nixon: Watergate ........................................................................ 14
   2. Gerald R. Ford Jr.: Continuation of Watergate ............................................. 21
   3. James E. Carter: Carter Peanut Warehouse ................................................ 23
   4. Ronald W. Reagan: Iran-Contra .................................................................... 26
   5. George H.W. Bush: BNL Scandal/Iraqgate .................................................. 29
   6. William J. Clinton: Whitewater ...................................................................... 31
   7. George W. Bush: CIA Leak/Plamegate ......................................................... 37
   8. Donald J. Trump: Trump-Russia Collusion Probe ......................................... 40

V. CONCLUSION ............................................................................................................ 45

VI. APPENDIX .............................................................................................................. 46
I. Summary: U.S. Presidential Special Prosecutor / Independent Counsel / Special Counsel Investigations 1973 to 2019

The first president involved in a special investigation was President Ulysses S. Grant in 1875 who appointed John B. Henderson, then fired him, then appointed James Brodhead in the Whiskey Ring Scandal. “Though Grant was not suspected, his private secretary, Orville E. Babcock, was indicted in the conspiracy but was acquitted after Grant testified to his innocence.” The cost of investigation was $1,442,672.72 in 2017 dollars.

The following is a chart of special investigations starting with Watergate in 1973.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>A. U.S. President in Office During Investigation</th>
<th>B. U.S. President / Admin Involved in Investigation</th>
<th>C. Subject of Special Prosecutor / Independent Counsel / Special Counsel Investigations</th>
<th>D. Number of Days of Investigation, Dates Started and Ended</th>
<th>E. Total Cost of Investigation</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Nixon</td>
<td>Nixon</td>
<td>Watergate: Investigation initiated after agents of the Committee to Re-Elect the President were convicted of breaking into the DNC headquarters in the Watergate building.</td>
<td>The Nixon/Ford investigations ran from May 19, 1973 to June 20, 1977, for a total of 1,464 days.</td>
<td>The total cost of the Nixon/Ford investigations in March 13, 2017, dollars was $47,094,590.10.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

3 “Whiskey Ring,” Britannica.com, accessed on March 28, 2018
4 The original cost of the investigation was $65,684.85, according to the St. Louis Republican, which was re-published in the Washington Law Reporter, page 42, March 24, 1876
5 Calculated online at in2013dollars.com on March 28, 2018, “Inflation data from 1665 to 1912 is sourced from a historical study conducted by political science professor Robert Sahr at Oregon State University.”
7 “Final report / Watergate Special Prosecution Force,” online at Babel.hathitrust.org, June 1977
8 Total number of days for investigations calculated online: https://www.timeanddate.com/date/duration.html
9 Total costs are from a White House Office of Communication note from June 7, 1974.
Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>A. U.S. President in Office During Investigation</th>
<th>B. U.S. President / Admin Involved in Investigation</th>
<th>C. Subject of Special Prosecutor / Independent Counsel / Special Counsel Investigations</th>
<th>D. Number of Days of Investigation, Dates Started and Ended</th>
<th>E. Total Cost of Investigation [Daily cost]</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2. Ford</td>
<td>Ford</td>
<td>Watergate special prosecutor also investigated alleged misuse of political contributions by President Gerald R. Ford.</td>
<td>Linked to Watergate investigation in #1</td>
<td>Linked to Watergate investigation in #1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Carter</td>
<td>Carter</td>
<td>Peanut Warehouse: An inquiry was initiated to investigate loans from the National Bank of Georgia to the Carter family business that may have been used to fund Carter’s 1976 campaign.</td>
<td>The Carter investigation ran from March 23, 1979, to Oct. 16, 1979, for a total of 208 days.</td>
<td>The total cost of the Carter investigation in March 13, 2017, dollars was $1,215,471.07. Calculated by USInflationCalculator.com on March 21, 2018. The “US Inflation Calculator uses the latest US government CPI data published on March 13 to adjust for inflation and calculate the cumulative inflation rate through February 2018.”</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

11 Paul J. Curran, Special Counsel, “Investigation of Carter’s Warehouse and the National Bank of Georgia Report to the Congress of the United States,” Folder Citation: Collection: Office of Staff Secretary; Series: Presidential Files; Folder: 10/16/79 [1]; Container 135, JimmyCarterLibrary.gov, Oct. 16, 1979

12 Paul J. Curran, Special Counsel, “Investigation of Carter’s Warehouse and the National Bank of Georgia Report to the Congress of the United States,” Folder Citation: Collection: Office of Staff Secretary; Series: Presidential Files; Folder: 10/16/79 [1]; Container 135, JimmyCarterLibrary.gov, Oct. 16, 1979

13 Total number of days for investigations calculated online: https://www.timeanddate.com/date/duration.html

14 Calculated by USInflationCalculator.com on March 21, 2018. The “US Inflation Calculator uses the latest US government CPI data published on March 13 to adjust for inflation and calculate the cumulative inflation rate through February 2018.”
Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>U.S. President in Office During Investigation</th>
<th>U.S. President / Admin Involved in Investigation</th>
<th>Subject of Special Prosecutor / Independent Counsel / Special Counsel Investigations</th>
<th>Number of Days of Investigation, Dates Started and Ended</th>
<th>Total Cost of Investigation</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>4. Reagan / H.W. Bush</td>
<td>Reagan</td>
<td>Iran-Contra Affair: Inquiry initiated when it was exposed that the U.S. government was assisting Nicaraguan contra rebels, and selling arms to Iran.</td>
<td>The Reagan investigation ran from Dec. 19, 1986, [15] to Aug. 4, 1993, [16] for a total of [17] days.</td>
<td>The total cost of the Reagan investigation in March 13, 2017, dollars was $81,098,533.51.[18] [$33,511.79/day]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. H.W. Bush</td>
<td>H.W. Bush</td>
<td>BNL Investigation: An inquiry was initiated into “the Bush Administration’s handling of a billion-dollar bank-fraud case involving illegal loans to Iraq.”[19]</td>
<td>The H.W. Bush investigation ran from Oct. 16, 1992, [20] to Dec. 8, 1992, [21] for a total of [22] days.</td>
<td>The total cost of the H.W. Bush investigation in March 13, 2017, dollars was $650,611.03.[23] [$12,048.35/day]</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

\[15\] “Records of Lawrence Walsh relating to Iran/Contra,” NationalArchives.gov, accessed on March 21, 2018
\[16\] “53. The Iran-Contra Report, August 4 1993 [Excerpts],” The Encyclopedia of Middle East Wars, Page 161
\[17\] Total number of days for investigations calculated online: https://www.timeanddate.com/date/duration.html
\[18\] Calculated by USInflationCalculator.com on March 21, 2018. The “US Inflation Calculator uses the latest US government CPI data published on March 13 to adjust for inflation and calculate the cumulative inflation rate through February 2018.”
\[19\] Elaine Sciolino, "ATTORNEY GENERAL NAMES PROSECUTOR IN IRAQ-LOANS CASE," NYTimes.com, Oct. 17, 1992
\[20\] Ronald J. Ostrow and Douglas Frantz, “Ex-Judge to Investigate Iraq Loans : Probe: Frederick Lacey of New Jersey will explore role of Justice Department and CIA in scandal. Democrats criticize attorney general’s plan.,” Articles.LATimes.com, Oct. 17, 1992
\[22\] Total number of days for investigations calculated online: https://www.timeanddate.com/date/duration.html
\[23\] Calculated by USInflationCalculator.com on March 21, 2018. The “US Inflation Calculator uses the latest US government CPI data published on March 13 to adjust for inflation and calculate the cumulative inflation rate through February 2018.”
Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>U.S. President in Office During Investigation</th>
<th>U.S. President / Admin Involved in Investigation</th>
<th>Subject of Special Prosecutor / Independent Counsel / Special Counsel Investigations</th>
<th>Number of Days of Investigation, Dates Started and Ended</th>
<th>Total Cost of Investigation</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A.</td>
<td>B.</td>
<td>C.</td>
<td>D.</td>
<td>E.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6. Clinton / W. Bush</td>
<td>Clinton</td>
<td>Whitewater: The initial investigation was to look into the Clintons’ Arkansas land-deal investments while Bill Clinton was governor.</td>
<td>The Clinton investigations ran from Jan. 20, 1994, 24 to March 23, 2004, 25 for a total of 3,716 26 days.</td>
<td>The total cost of the Clinton investigations in March 13, 2017, dollars was $83,358,502.05. 27</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>[22,432.32/day]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7. W. Bush</td>
<td>W. Bush</td>
<td>Plamegate: An inquiry was initiated into the leak of CIA agent Valerie Plame’s identity after she was identified by name in a syndicated column. High-level George W. Bush admin officials were investigated, the vice president’s chief of staff was prosecuted, then pardoned by Bush.</td>
<td>The W. Bush investigation ran from Dec. 30, 2003, 28 to Dec. 11, 2007, 29 for a total of 1,443 30 days.</td>
<td>The total cost of the W. Bush investigation in March 13, 2017, dollars was $3,050,079.58. 31</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>[$2,113.70/day]</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

24 “Whitewater Timeline,” Academic.Brooklyn.cuny.edu

26 Total number of days for investigations calculated online: https://www.timeanddate.com/date/duration.html

27 Calculated by USInflationCalculator.com on March 21, 2018. The “US Inflation Calculator uses the latest US government CPI data published on March 13 to adjust for inflation and calculate the cumulative inflation rate through February 2018.”

28 Department of Justice Press Conference transcript, “Appointment of special prosecutor to oversee investigation into alleged leak of CIA agent identity and recusal of Attorney General Ashcroft from the investigation,” online at FAS.org, Dec. 30, 2003

29 “On December 11, 2007 the administration official dropped his appeal of his convictions. This matter is now concluded for all practical purposes, but the office of special counsel will continue for limited purposes, such as responding to Congressional requests for information,” according to a GAO Report dated March 2008 titled “FINANCIAL AUDIT: Special Counsel Expenditures for the Six Months Ended September 30, 2007.”

30 Total number of days for investigations calculated online: https://www.timeanddate.com/date/duration.html

31 Calculated by USInflationCalculator.com on March 21, 2018. The “US Inflation Calculator uses the latest US government CPI data published on March 13 to adjust for inflation and calculate the cumulative inflation rate through February 2018.”
Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>A. U.S. President in Office During Investigation</th>
<th>B. U.S. President / Admin Involved in Investigation</th>
<th>C. Subject of Special Prosecutor / Independent Counsel / Special Counsel Investigations</th>
<th>D. Number of Days of Investigation, Dates Started and Ended</th>
<th>E. Total Cost of Investigation [Daily cost]</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>8. Trump</td>
<td>Trump</td>
<td>An inquiry was initiated to investigate alleged ties between President Trump’s campaign and Russian officials in the 2016 presidential election.</td>
<td>The Trump investigation ran from May 17, 2017, to March 22, 2019, (when Robert S. Mueller submitted his report) for a total of 675 days.</td>
<td>The total cost of the Trump investigation in 2017 dollars was $30,406,381.77. This cost covers May 17, 2017, to May 31, 2019, a total of 745 days of DOJ expenditure reporting. [$45,046.49/day for the 675-day investigation]</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1. There have been nine presidential administrations since the beginning of Watergate to the date of this report, from Nixon to Trump. The only presidential administration that was not part of an investigation by a special prosecutor/independent counsel/special counsel was that of President Barack H. Obama.

2. Since 1973, Presidents Gerald R. Ford and Barack H. Obama did not have a special investigation started during their administration. The investigation of Ford was part of the Watergate investigation started in the Nixon administration.

---

32 “Special Counsel's Office: Related Court Documents,” United States Department of Justice website Justice.gov, accessed on March 21, 2018

34 Total number of days for investigations calculated online: https://www.timeanddate.com/date/duration.html

Page 8 of 50
II. Charts of Summary Metrics

1. Chart: Total Cost of Each Investigation in 2017 Dollars

The Watergate investigation continued into the administration of Gerald R. Ford Jr., who was also investigated during the investigation of Nixon, after President Richard M. Nixon resigned. The amount shown for Nixon/Ford is the combined total found for the entire Watergate investigation across the two administrations.
2. Chart: Total Number of Days of Each Investigation

*The Watergate investigation continued into the administration of Gerald R. Ford Jr., who was also investigated during the investigation of Nixon, after President Richard M. Nixon resigned. The days of investigation shown for Nixon/Ford are the combined total found for the entire Watergate investigation across the two administrations.
Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

3. Chart: Cost Per Day of Each Investigation in 2017 Dollars

*The Watergate investigation continued into the administration of Gerald R. Ford Jr., who was also investigated during the investigation of Nixon, after President Richard M. Nixon resigned. The amount shown per day of investigation for Nixon/Ford is the combined total found for the entire Watergate investigation across the two administrations.
III. A Summary of the Differences Among the Titles Special Prosecutor / Independent Counsel / Special Counsel

The titles for those tasked with conducting special investigations involving presidents and their administrations are sometimes used interchangeably in the media and other resources, but there is a difference among the official titles “Special Prosecutor,” “Independent Counsel” and “Special Counsel.”

This is a brief summary of the history behind the titles for those leading investigations and how each is appointed, and does not delve into the details of the many steps that take place before a special investigation is initiated, such as an internal Department of Justice or FBI investigation or a conclusion by a congressional committee that recommends a more thorough investigation.

Prior to reform in 1978, presidents themselves were among the officials able to appoint and fire special investigators, such as President Ulysses S. Grant who appointed two and fired one during the “Whiskey Ring” scandal. Those investigators held the title of “Special Prosecutor.” In Watergate, Attorney General-designate Elliot L. Richardson appointed the special prosecutor and when President Richard M. Nixon initiated the firing of the special prosecutor through the attorney general’s office, Richardson resigned.

After Watergate, the method for choosing a special prosecutor was changed so that the president could not fire the person working on the investigation. The Ethics in Government Act of 1978, initially meant to last for five years, was enacted. Under the rules of this statute, a three-judge panel assigned to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia was now responsible for appointing a special prosecutor who would be independent from reprisal by the

38 Jeffrey Frank, “Comey’s Firing Is—and Isn’t—Like Nixon’s Saturday Night Massacre,” May 9, 2017
Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

White House. Although the attorney general could not choose the investigator, they could still apply for the appointment of a special prosecutor under the statute.

The title of special prosecutor was retained until the subcommittee on Oversight of Government Management “proposed that the name ‘special prosecutor’ be changed to ‘independent counsel’ to remove the pejorative connotation of the investigation.” In the Ethics in Government Act Amendments of 1982, “Special Prosecutor” was officially changed to “Independent Counsel.”

Even though an independent counsel could now be appointed independent from the executive branch, attorneys general on at least two occasions directly appointed investigators who served as “Special Counsel,” which was still a viable choice under the statute and did not require approval by the three-judge panel.

An independent counsel could only be terminated by the attorney general, other than “impeachment and conviction,” for “good cause, physical or mental disability … or any other condition that substantially impairs the performance of such independent counsel’s duties.”

The 1978 statute was amended, allowed to expire, and reauthorized over two decades until it finally expired in 1999. As of the date of this report, the current title for the investigator appointed for special investigations involving the White House directly or indirectly, like Robert Mueller’s investigation into the Trump campaign/Russia collusion, is “Special Counsel.”

---

IV. Special Prosecutor / Independent Counsel / Special Counsel Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents and their Admins

1. Richard M. Nixon: Watergate

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Start / End</th>
<th>Total Cost of Investigation</th>
<th>Name of Investigator / Title</th>
<th>Appointed By</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>[# of Days]</td>
<td>A.</td>
<td>B.</td>
<td>C.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5/19/1973(^44) / 10/20/1973(^45) [155]</td>
<td>$6,795,000(^46)</td>
<td>Archibald Cox / First Special Prosecutor of the Watergate Special Prosecution Force [WSPF]</td>
<td>Attorney General-designate Elliot L. Richardson</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10/26/1974(^51) / 10/1/1975(^52) [341]</td>
<td>$11,643,000 for both Nixon and Ford admin investigations</td>
<td>Henry S. Ruth Jr. / Third Special Prosecutor after Jaworski</td>
<td>Attorney General William B. Saxbe(^53)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

\(^{44}\) George Lardner, Jr., “Cox Is Chosen as Special Prosecutor,” WashingtonPost.com, May 19, 1973

\(^{45}\) “IN RE SUBPOENA TO NIXON,” Cite as 360 F.Supp. 1 (1973), LawJustia.com, Aug. 29, 1973

\(^{46}\) The data for the “best estimates of the Watergate cost,” White House note, Office of Communications, NixonLibrary.com, June 7, 1974

\(^{47}\) “Watergate Special Prosecution Force: Report,” online at Archive.org, undated, accessed on March 21, 2018

\(^{48}\) “Watergate Special Prosecution Force: Report,” online at Archive.org, undated, accessed on March 21, 2018

\(^{49}\) Total from “Watergate Appropriations During Ford Administration,” chart in Section IV of this report

\(^{50}\) “Bork Chooses Jaworski As Watergate Prosecutor,” TheCrimson.com, Nov. 2, 1973

\(^{51}\) “Watergate Special Prosecution Force: Report,” online at Archive.org, undated, accessed on March 21, 2018

\(^{52}\) “Final report / Watergate Special Prosecution Force,” online at Babel.hathitrust.org, June 1977

\(^{53}\) The Courier-Journal text online at Newspapers.com, Oct. 24, 1974
Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Start / End [# of Days]</th>
<th>Total Cost of Investigation</th>
<th>Name of Investigator / Title</th>
<th>Appointed By</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A. 10/17/1975⁵⁴ / 6/20/1977⁵⁵ [613]</td>
<td>The total cost of the Nixon investigations in March 13, 2017, dollars was $47,094,590.10.⁵⁷</td>
<td>Charles F. C. Ruff / Fourth and Final Special Prosecutor of the WSPF</td>
<td>Sworn in by Attorney General Edward H. Levi⁵⁸</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The Nixon investigations ran from May 19, 1973, to June 20, 1977, for a total of 1,464⁵⁶ days.

1. Summary of the Investigation

a. After agents of the Committee to Re-Elect the President (CRP) broke into the Democratic National Committee headquarters in the Watergate building on June 17, 1972, and were convicted of “conspiracy, burglary, and wiretapping charges,”⁶⁹ allegations that high-level Nixon Administration officials might be connected eventually led to the appointment of Archibald Cox as special prosecutor on May 19, 1973, and the establishment of the Watergate Special Prosecution Force on May 25, 1973, the same day Archibald Cox was sworn in,⁶⁰ to June 20, 1977,⁶¹ the firing of the first of four special prosecutors referred to as the “Saturday Night Massacre,”⁶² and the subsequent resignation of President Richard M. Nixon.

---

⁵⁴ “Final report / Watergate Special Prosecution Force,” online at Babel.hathitrust.org, June 1977
⁵⁵ “Final report / Watergate Special Prosecution Force,” online at Babel.hathitrust.org, June 1977
⁵⁶ Total number of days for investigations calculated online: https://www.timeanddate.com/date/duration.html
⁵⁷ Calculated by USInflationCalculator.com on March 21, 2018. The “US Inflation Calculator uses the latest US government CPI data published on March 13 to adjust for inflation and calculate the cumulative inflation rate through February 2018.”
⁵⁹ “Watergate Special Prosecution Force: Report,” online at Archive.org, undated, accessed on March 21, 2018
⁶⁰ Federal Register, Volume 38, Number 106, June 4, 1973, online at LOC.gov, Page 14688, accessed on March 21, 2018
⁶¹ “Final report / Watergate Special Prosecution Force,” online at Babel.hathitrust.org, June 1977
Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

2. Special Prosecutor/Independent Counsel/Special Counsel
   a. Archibald Cox – First Special Prosecutor of the Watergate Special Prosecution Force
   b. Leon Jaworski – Second Special Prosecutor after Cox fired by Nixon
   c. Henry S. Ruth Jr. – Third Special Prosecutor after Jaworski
   d. Charles F. C. Ruff – Fourth and final Special Prosecutor of the Watergate Special Prosecution Force

3. Dates of Investigation

---

64 George Lardner, Jr., “Cox Is Chosen as Special Prosecutor,” WashingtonPost.com, May 19, 1973
65 Federal Register, Volume 38, Number 106, June 4, 1973, online at LOC.gov, Page 14688, accessed on March 21, 2018
66 Federal Register, Volume 38, Number 106, June 4, 1973, online at LOC.gov, Page 14688, accessed on March 21, 2018
67 “Final report / Watergate Special Prosecution Force,” online at Babel.hathitrust.org, June 1977
68 “IN RE SUBPOENA TO NIXON, Cite as 360 F.Supp. 1,” online at Law.Gov, Aug. 29, 1973
71 “Final report / Watergate Special Prosecution Force,” online at Babel.hathitrust.org, June 1977

Page 16 of 50
Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

c. START (Jaworski investigation) – On Nov. 5, 1973,'73 Leon Jaworski resumed the investigation.'74 On August 8, 1974, Nixon addressed the nation with intent to resign.'75 On August 9, 1974, Nixon resigned.'76

d. END (Jaworski investigation) – Oct. 25, 1974,'77 was Jaworski’s effective date of his resignation that he announced on Oct. 12, 1974.'78 A third special prosecutor took over.

e. START (Ruth investigation) – On Oct. 26, 1974,'79 Henry S. Ruth Jr., succeeded Jaworski.'80

f. END (Ruth investigation) – On Oct. 1, 1975,'81 Ruth leaves and Charles F. C. Ruff was named fourth special prosecutor.'82

g. START (Ruff investigation) – On Oct. 17, 1975, Ruff was sworn in as part-time director.'83 During his time as special prosecutor, Ruff conducted an investigation into alleged misuse of political contributions by President Ford, and on Oct. 14, 1976, Ruff concluded that there was no evidence of wrongdoing.'84

h. END of WATERGATE TASK FORCE – On June 20, 1977, Ruff finished his service as the last special prosecutor of the Watergate Special Prosecution Force and issued a final report dated June 1977.'85

---

73 “Watergate Special Prosecution Force: Report,” online at Archive.org, undated, accessed on March 21, 2018
74 “Watergate Special Prosecution Force: Report,” online at Archive.org, undated, accessed on March 21, 2018
77 “Watergate Special Prosecution Force: Report,” online at Archive.org, undated, accessed on March 21, 2018
78 “Final report / Watergate Special Prosecution Force,” online at Babel.hathitrust.org, June 1977
79 “Watergate Special Prosecution Force: Report,” online at Archive.org, undated, accessed on March 21, 2018
80 “Watergate Special Prosecution Force: Report,” online at Archive.org, undated, accessed on March 21, 2018
81 “Final report / Watergate Special Prosecution Force,” online at Babel.hathitrust.org, June 1977
82 “Final report / Watergate Special Prosecution Force,” online at Babel.hathitrust.org, June 1977
83 “Final report / Watergate Special Prosecution Force,” online at Babel.hathitrust.org, June 1977
85 “Final report / Watergate Special Prosecution Force,” online at Babel.hathitrust.org, June 1977
4. Conclusion

a. Sept. 8, 1974 - President Gerald Ford issued Nixon a full pardon.\(^{86}\)

"This ultimately became known as United States Office of the Independent Counsel, and was used for major investigations like Iran-Contra during the Reagan years and Whitewater during the Clinton years, which ultimately led to Clinton's impeachment."\(^{88}\)

"Since then, 21 special investigations have been launched, with seven leading to convictions and five still active [1999]. The total cost passed $166 million through the last fiscal year."\(^{89}\)

c. The reform act expired in 1999:

"Congress in 1978 passed a law in the wake of Watergate that allowed the appointment of 'independent counsel' by a three-judge panel of a Washington, D.C. appeals court at the request of the attorney general, but the law had five-year sunset provisions and was ultimately allowed to expire in 1999, according to the Congressional Research Service."\(^{90}\)

\(^{86}\) “Richard Nixon’s Resignation Letter And Gerald Ford’s Pardon,” ArchivesFoundation.org

\(^{88}\) Alana Abramson, “Robert Mueller Was Just Named a Special Counsel. What’s That?”, Time.com, May 17, 2017

\(^{89}\) “From Watergate to Whitewater: History of the independent counsel,” CNN.com, June 30, 1999

Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

5. Cost of Investigation

a. The Watergate investigation cost $6.5 million or more, according to the Washington Post article titled “Watergate Cost Tops $6 Million,” May 21, 1974.91

“The White House office does not maintain accounting or other records which would permit us to obtain precise information on the costs incurred on Watergate,’ GAO said. To make its estimate, GAO said, it examined White House payroll records and interviewed staff members to determine the percentage of their time devoted to Watergate.”

b. The “best estimates of the Watergate cost,”92 according to a June 7, 1974, White House memo from the Office of Communication, with data broken down into the following categories (approximately $400,000 is noted for White House Legal Staff):

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Staff Members</th>
<th>Lawyers</th>
<th>Funds</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Senate Watergate Committee</td>
<td>42 (the Earvin committee had a staff of 92 at its peak)</td>
<td>17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>House Judiciary Committee</td>
<td>100</td>
<td>43</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Special Prosecutor’s Office</td>
<td>80</td>
<td>38</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Grand Juries</td>
<td>N/A</td>
<td>N/A</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>GSA Audit of Nixon Homes</td>
<td>N/A</td>
<td>N/A</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>GAO Audit of Nixon Homes</td>
<td>N/A</td>
<td>N/A</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>White House Legal Staff (listed separately)</td>
<td>21</td>
<td>13</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

91 Article scanned and posted on JFK.hood.edu, hood.edu is the web address for Hood College in Maryland, and the copy of the article is part of The Harold Weisberg Archive, Digital Collection

92 White House Office of Communications, NixonLibrary.gov, June 7, 1974
Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

c. From the “Watergate Special Prosecution Force Report” Charter Documents in Appendix J:

“Budget. The Special Prosecutor will be provided with such funds and facilities to carry out his responsibilities as he may reasonably require. He shall have the right to submit budget requests for funds, positions, and other assistance, and such requests shall receive the highest priority.” 93

93 “Watergate Special Prosecution Force: Report,” online at Archive.org, undated, accessed on March 21, 2018
2. Gerald R. Ford Jr.: Continuation of Watergate

The Watergate investigation continued into the administration of Gerald R. Ford Jr. after Nixon resigned. The following special prosecutors overlapped into the Ford administration from the Nixon administration.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Start / End [# of Days]</th>
<th>Total Cost of Investigation</th>
<th>Name of Investigator / Title</th>
<th>Appointed By</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>10/26/1974&lt;sup&gt;97&lt;/sup&gt; / 10/1/1975&lt;sup&gt;98&lt;/sup&gt; [341]</td>
<td>Henry S. Ruth Jr. / Third Special Prosecutor after Jaworski</td>
<td>Attorney General William B. Saxbe&lt;sup&gt;99&lt;/sup&gt;</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10/17/1975&lt;sup&gt;100&lt;/sup&gt; / 6/20/1977&lt;sup&gt;101&lt;/sup&gt; [613]</td>
<td>Linked to Watergate investigation in #1</td>
<td>Charles F. C. Ruff / Fourth and Final Special Prosecutor of the WSPF</td>
<td>Sworn in by Attorney General Edward H. Levi&lt;sup&gt;102&lt;/sup&gt;</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

<sup>94</sup>“Watergate Special Prosecution Force: Report,” online at Archive.org, undated, accessed on March 21, 2018

<sup>95</sup>“Watergate Special Prosecution Force: Report,” online at Archive.org, undated, accessed on March 21, 2018

<sup>96</sup>“Bork Chooses Jaworski As Watergate Prosecutor,” TheCrimson.com, Nov. 2, 1973

<sup>97</sup>“Watergate Special Prosecution Force: Report,” online at Archive.org, undated, accessed on March 21, 2018

<sup>98</sup>“Final report / Watergate Special Prosecution Force,” online at Babel.hathitrust.org, June 1977

<sup>99</sup>The Courier-Journal text online at Newspapers.com, Oct. 24, 1974

<sup>100</sup>“Final report / Watergate Special Prosecution Force,” online at Babel.hathitrust.org, June 1977

<sup>101</sup>“Final report / Watergate Special Prosecution Force,” online at Babel.hathitrust.org, June 1977

<sup>102</sup>Jerry Oppenheimer, “Special Prosecutor Was Just Fading Away When …” The Washington Star, online at FordLibraryMuseum.gov, Digitized from Box 53 of the Philip Buchen Files at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library, item dated Oct. 3, 1996
Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

1. Summary of the Investigation
   a. Although Watergate started under the Nixon administration and was initiated against President Nixon, the investigation extended into the Ford administration. On Oct. 17, 1975, Charles F.C. Ruff was sworn in as part-time director, and he was the last of four special prosecutors on the Watergate investigation.\textsuperscript{103} During his time as special prosecutor, Ruff conducted an investigation into alleged misuse of political contributions by Ford, and on Oct. 14, 1976, Ruff concluded that there was no evidence of wrongdoing.\textsuperscript{104}

2. Cost of Investigation
   a. During the Ford administration, the following amount was found to be appropriated for the Watergate investigation:\textsuperscript{105}

   \begin{center}
   \begin{tabular}{|l|c|}
   \hline
   \textbf{Watergate Appropriations During Ford Administration} & \\
   \hline
   July 1, 1974 to June 1975 appropriations\textsuperscript{106} & $2,804,000 \\
   \hline
   July 1, 1975 - June 30, 1976 appropriations\textsuperscript{107} & $2,044,000 \\
   \hline
   \textbf{Total} & $4,848,000 \\
   \hline
   \end{tabular}
   \end{center}

\textsuperscript{103}“Final report / Watergate Special Prosecution Force,” online at Babel.hathitrust.org, June 1977
\textsuperscript{104}Nicholas Horrock, “Prosecutor Reports No Violation By Ford On Political Funds,” NYTimes.com, Oct. 15, 1976
\textsuperscript{105}For the year 1977, when the Watergate investigation concluded: “In addition to funds provided under this Act, unobligated balances from the amount appropriated for the Watergate Special Prosecution Force in 1976 shall remain available until September 30, 1977.” Public Law 94-362, July 14, 1976
\textsuperscript{106}Public Law 93-433, Oct. 5, 1974
\textsuperscript{107}Public Law 94-121, Oct. 21, 1975
3. James E. Carter: Carter Peanut Warehouse

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Start / End [# of Days]</th>
<th>Total Cost of Investigation</th>
<th>Name of Investigator / Title</th>
<th>Appointed By</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A. 3/23/1979&lt;sup&gt;108&lt;/sup&gt; / 10/16/1979&lt;sup&gt;109&lt;/sup&gt;</td>
<td>$360,000&lt;sup&gt;111&lt;/sup&gt;</td>
<td>Paul J. Curran / Special Counsel</td>
<td>Attorney General Griffin Bell appointed a special counsel and was rebuked for not seeking an independent counsel for the investigation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. The total cost of the Carter investigation in March 13, 2017, dollars was $1,215,471.07.</td>
<td>C.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C.</td>
<td>D.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The Carter investigation ran from March 23, 1979, to Oct. 16, 1979, for a total of 208<sup>110</sup> days.

1. Summary of the Investigation

a. The Carter Peanut Warehouse, partially owned by President James E. Carter, was investigated and exonerated in 1979 of allegations that National Bank of Georgia loans made to the Carter family business<sup>113</sup> were “questionable” and some may have been used to fund the 1976 Carter presidential campaign.<sup>114</sup> Attorney General Griffin Bell’s decision to appoint a “Special Counsel” instead of an independent “Special Prosecutor”<sup>115</sup> under the Ethics in Government Act of 1978<sup>116</sup> (passed in... response to President Nixon’s firing of the first Watergate special prosecutor), was questioned by members of Congress. Sen. Robert C. Byrd said the public, the press and Congress “must be certain that Mr. Curran is given the requisite independence,”117 and Sen. Charles H. Percy said it was “troublesome that he could be fired by the Attorney General without cause and with no legal recourse.”118 In April, Curran was given full “prosecuting authority”119 similar to the Watergate special prosecutors.

2. Special Prosecutor/Independent Counsel/Special Counsel
   a. Paul J. Curran - Special Counsel

3. Dates of Investigation
   a. START – March 23, 1979,120 is the start date Curran cited in his report on the investigation, while a United States Department of Justice news release stated that Bell announced the appointment on March 20, 1979.121
   b. END – On Oct. 16, 1979,122 Curran presented his report123 to President of the Senate Walter F. Mondale.

mental incapacity, or any other condition that substantially impairs the performance of such special prosecutor's duties.” Online at Law.UPenn.edu, accessed on March 21, 2018

117 “Congressional Record – Senate,” March 22, 1979, Page 5943
118 “Congressional Record – Senate,” March 22, 1979, Page 5943
119 “Collection: Office of Staff Secretary; Series: Presidential Files,” WaPo.com, April 9, 1979
120 Paul J. Curran, Special Counsel, “Investigation of Carter’s Warehouse and the National Bank of Georgia Report to the Congress of the United States,” Folder Citation: Collection: Office of Staff Secretary; Series: Presidential Files; Folder: 10/16/79 [1]; Container 135, JimmyCarterLibrary.gov, Oct. 16, 1979
121 U.S. Department of Justice News Release, Collection: Office of Staff Secretary; Series: Presidential Files; Folder: 3/20/79 [1]; Container 110, JimmyCarterLibrary.gov, March 20, 1979
122 Paul J. Curran, Special Counsel, “Investigation of Carter’s Warehouse and the National Bank of Georgia Report to the Congress of the United States,” Folder Citation: Collection: Office of Staff Secretary; Series: Presidential Files; Folder: 10/16/79 [1]; Container 135, JimmyCarterLibrary.gov, Oct. 16, 1979
123 Paul J. Curran, Special Counsel, “Investigation of Carter’s Warehouse and the National Bank of Georgia Report to the Congress of the United States,” Folder Citation: Collection: Office of Staff Secretary; Series: Presidential Files; Folder: 10/16/79 [1]; Container 135, JimmyCarterLibrary.gov, Oct. 16, 1979

Page 24 of 50
4. Conclusion
   a. From the “White House Statement on the Findings of a Special Investigation” dated Oct. 16, 1979:

   “…We said from the very beginning of the investigation that no moneys were diverted … and the report shows our statements were absolutely correct. We also said from the beginning that we would cooperate fully with the investigation, and the report shows we did exactly that.”

   b. Curran, in his Oct. 16, 1979, report, noted that the president could have faced penalty for false statements made during his deposition:

   “On September 5, 1979 in the White House, I and my staff conducted a four hour deposition under oath of President Jimmy Carter.* [Footnote: Jimmy Carter was subject to prosecution under Title 18, United States Code, Section 1001 and 1623 for any false statements made during the course of his deposition.]”

5. Cost of Investigation
   b. This report uses the cost reported in a WashingtonPost.com article dated Oct. 17, 1979: “Curran estimated that the investigation cost the government about $360,000.”

---

124 Public Papers of the Presidents of the United States, Jimmy Carter, 1979 … Book II – June 23 to December 31, 1979, Books.Google.com

125 Paul J. Curran, Special Counsel, “Investigation of Carter’s Warehouse and the National Bank of Georgia Report to the Congress of the United States,” report online at JimmyCarterLibrary.gov, Folder Citation: Collection: Office of Staff Secretary; Series: Presidential Files; Folder: 10/16/79 [1]; Container 135, accessed on March 21, 2018

4. Ronald W. Reagan: Iran-Contra

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Start / End [# of Days]</th>
<th>Total Cost of Investigation</th>
<th>Name of Investigator / Title</th>
<th>Appointed By</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>12/19/1986 / 8/4/1993</td>
<td>$47,873,400</td>
<td>Lawrence Walsh / Independent Counsel / Special Prosecutor</td>
<td>A three-judge panel of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia for independent counsels</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The Reagan investigation ran from Dec. 19, 1986, to Aug. 4, 1993, for a total of 2,420 days. The total cost of the Reagan investigation in March 13, 2017, dollars was $81,098,533.51.

1. Summary of the Investigation

   a. According to the National Archives, “Records of Lawrence Walsh”:

   "In October and November 1986, two secret U.S. Government operations were publicly exposed, potentially implicating Reagan administration officials in illegal activities: the provision of assistance to the military activities of Nicaraguan contra rebels during an October 1984 to October 1986 prohibition on such aid, and the sale of U.S. arms to Iran in contravention of stated U.S. policy and in possible violation of arms-export controls. In late November 1986, Reagan administration officials announced that some of the proceeds from the sale of U.S. arms to Iran had been diverted to the contras."

---

127 “Records of Lawrence Walsh relating to Iran/Contra,” NationalArchives.gov, accessed on March 21, 2018
128 “53. The Iran-Contra Report, August 4 1993 [Excerpts],” The Encyclopedia of Middle East Wars, Page 161
129 Total number of days for investigations calculated online: https://www.timeanddate.com/date/duration.html
131 Calculated by USInflationCalculator.com on March 21, 2018. The “US Inflation Calculator uses the latest US government CPI data published on March 13 to adjust for inflation and calculate the cumulative inflation rate through February 2018.”
132 “Records of Lawrence Walsh relating to Iran/Contra,” NationalArchives.gov, accessed on March 21, 2018
2. Special Prosecutor/Independent Counsel/Special Counsel
   a. Lawrence Walsh - Independent Counsel / Special Prosecutor

3. Dates of Investigation

   "The 'Front Door' investigation, started by Federal Bureau of Investigation in November [26] of 1986, was transferred when Lawrence Walsh was appointed Independent Counsel on December 19, 1986."\(^{134}\)

   b. END – On Aug. 4, 1993, Lawrence Walsh submitted his final report to the House of Representatives.\(^{135}\) In the final report\(^{136}\) Walsh wrote: “The criminal investigation of [then Vice President George H.W.] Bush was regrettably incomplete.” President H.W. Bush had pardoned many defendants in the Iran-Contra investigation. In Chapter 27 of the final report, Walsh said of Reagan:

   “It was concluded that President Reagan's conduct fell well short of criminality which could be successfully prosecuted. Fundamentally, it could not be proved beyond a reasonable doubt that President Reagan knew of the underlying facts of Iran/contra that were criminal or that he made criminal misrepresentations regarding them.”

\(^{133}\) “Records of Lawrence Walsh relating to Iran/Contra,” NationalArchives.gov, accessed on March 21, 2018

\(^{134}\) “Records of Lawrence Walsh relating to Iran/Contra,” NationalArchives.gov, accessed on March 21, 2018

4. Conclusion
   a. In 1987, a requirement was made for tracking expenditures:

      “In 1987, Public Law 100-202 established a permanent, indefinite appropriation within Justice to fund expenditures by independent counsels. Independent counsels are required to report their expenditures from the appropriation for each 6-month period in which they have operations.”\textsuperscript{138}

   b. March 16, 1988 – Indictments:

      "On March 16, 1988, the grand jury handed down a 23 count indictment against [John] Poindexter, [Oliver] North, [Albert] Hakim, and Richard Secord.”\textsuperscript{139}

   c. Dec. 24, 1992 – Bush pardons:

      "On December 24, 1992, President George H.W. Bush granted pardons to six defendants in the Iran-Contra Affairs. The defendants were Elliott Abrams, a former assistant secretary of state for Central America; former National Security Adviser Robert McFarlane; former CIA officials Duane Clarridge, Alan Fiers, and Clair George; and former Secretary of Defense Caspar Weinberger.”\textsuperscript{140}

5. Cost of Investigation
   a. $47,873,400 was the reported cost of the investigation according to “CRS Report for Congress: Independent Counsels Appointed Under the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, Costs and Results of Investigations.”\textsuperscript{141}

\textsuperscript{139} “Records of Lawrence Walsh relating to Iran/Contra,” NationalArchives.gov, accessed on March 21, 2018

\textsuperscript{140} “Understanding the Iran-Contra Affairs: The 1992 Pardons,” Brown.edu, accessed on March 24, 2018

5. George H.W. Bush: BNL Scandal/Iraqgate

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Start / End [# of Days]</th>
<th>Total Cost of Investigation</th>
<th>Name of Investigator / Title</th>
<th>Appointed By</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A. 10/16/1992¹⁴² / 12/8/1992¹⁴³</td>
<td>$372,392¹⁴⁵</td>
<td>Frederick B. Lacey Special Counsel / Independent Counsel</td>
<td>Attorney General William P. Barr</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The H.W. Bush Investigation ran from Oct. 16, 1992, to Dec. 8, 1992, for a total of 54¹⁴⁴ days.

The total cost of the H.W. Bush investigation in March 13, 2017, dollars was $650,611.03,¹⁴⁶

1. Summary of the Investigation
   a. In an investigation also known as “Iraqgate”¹⁴⁷ or “Iraq-gate,”¹⁴⁸ on Oct. 16, 1992, Attorney General William P. Barr appointed retired federal judge Frederick B. Lacey “to investigate the Bush Administration's handling of a billion-dollar bank-fraud case involving illegal loans to Iraq.”¹⁴⁹ In December, “Lacey was named special counsel in charge of investigating both matters, and he determined that no federal crime had been committed in either case.”¹⁵⁰

---

¹⁴² Ronald J. Ostrow and Douglas Frantz, “Ex-Judge to Investigate Iraq Loans : Probe: Frederick Lacey of New Jersey will explore role of Justice Department and CIA in scandal. Democrats criticize attorney general's plan.,” Articles.LATimes.com, Oct. 17, 1992

¹⁴⁴ Total number of days for investigations calculated online: https://www.timeanddate.com/date/duration.html

¹⁴⁵ "Summary of U.S. Department of Justice expenses for the investigation by Special Counsel Frederick B. Lacey of the conduct of the U.S. Department of Justice relating to the Banca Nationale Del Lavoro," dated April 6, 1993, printed in the Congressional Record-House, June 8, 1993, Page 12135

¹⁴⁶ Calculated by USInflationCalculator.com on March 21, 2018. The “US Inflation Calculator uses the latest US government CPI data published on March 13 to adjust for inflation and calculate the cumulative inflation rate through February 2018.”

¹⁴⁸ The Editors of Encyclopaedia Britannica, “Iraqgate,” Britannica.com, accessed on March 21, 2018

¹⁵⁰ Sonam Sheth, "Obama is the only president since Nixon who didn't face an independent investigation," BusinessInsider.com, Oct. 23, 2017
2. Special Prosecutor/Independent Counsel/Special Counsel
   a. Frederick B. Lacey - Special Counsel / Independent Counsel

3. Dates of Investigation
   a. START – Oct. 16, 1992\textsuperscript{151}
   b. END – Dec. 8, 1992\textsuperscript{152}

4. Conclusion
   "Mr. Barr's refusal to seek a judicially appointed prosecutor in the case involving the Atlanta branch of the Banca Nazionale del Lavoro followed the recommendation of Frederick B. Lacey, his own counsel. Judge Lacey had submitted a two-volume report that found 'no reasonable grounds to believe further investigation is warranted with respect to the matters involved here.' Calls Accusations 'Nonsense' "\textsuperscript{153}

5. Cost of Investigation
   a. $372,392\textsuperscript{154} according to the “Summary of U.S. Department of Justice expenses for the investigation by Special Counsel Frederick B. Lacey of the conduct of the U.S. Department of Justice relating to the Banca Nationale Del Lavoro,” reported in the Congressional Record-House, June 8, 1993.

\textsuperscript{154} “Summary of U.S. Department of Justice expenses for the investigation by Special Counsel Frederick B. Lacey of the conduct of the U.S. Department of Justice relating to the Banca Nationale Del Lavoro,” dated April 6, 1993, printed in the Congressional Record-House, June 8, 1993, Page 12135
Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

6. William J. Clinton: Whitewater

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Start / End [No of Days]</th>
<th>Total Cost of Investigation</th>
<th>Name of Investigator / Title</th>
<th>Appointed By</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| The Clinton investigations ran from Jan. 20, 1994, to March 23, 2004, for a total of 3,716\textsuperscript{155} days.
1/20/1994\textsuperscript{156} / 10/6/1994\textsuperscript{157} [260] | $6,073,000\textsuperscript{158} | Robert Fiske / Special Counsel
(succeeded by Starr and left the investigation on Oct. 6, 1994) | Attorney General Janet Reno appointed Fiske, making him ineligible to continue his post when an independent counsel was requested |
| 8/5/1994\textsuperscript{159} / 10/18/1999\textsuperscript{160} [1,901] | $55,105,992\textsuperscript{161} for the Starr, Ray, Thomas investigations. | Kenneth Starr / First independently appointed Independent Counsel | A three-judge panel of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia for independent counsels selected Starr |

\textsuperscript{155} Total number of days for investigations calculated online: https://www.timeanddate.com/date/duration.html

\textsuperscript{156} “Whitewater Timeline,” Academic.Brooklyn.cuny.edu, accessed on March 24, 2018

\textsuperscript{157} “GAO/AIMD – 97-24R – Independent Counsels,” GAO.gov, Dec. 20, 1996 [“Kenneth W. Starr was appointed August 5, 1994 … After completing a transition of operations … Fiske terminated his appointment on October 6, 1994.”]

\textsuperscript{159} “GAO/AIMD – 97-24R – Independent Counsels,” online at GAO.gov, Dec. 20, 1996

\textsuperscript{160} “Starr cites 'intense politicization' in resigning post,” CNN.com, Oct. 18, 1999

\textsuperscript{161} “FY 2008 Performance Budget Independent Counsel Congressional Justification,” online at Justice.gov, as of Aug. 1, 2006
1. Summary of the Investigation

a. “Whitewater” is the blanket title for a series of investigations that started with “any possible violations of law relating in any way to President Clinton and the First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton's relationship with Madison Guarantee Savings and Loan Association, the Whitewater Development Corporation, or Capital Management Services.” Attorney General Janet Reno appointed Robert B. Fiske, Jr. to lead the investigation, which also included the death of Vince Foster.

---

162 “New Independent Counsel Prosecutor Robert Ray was sworn in today to replace Kenneth Starr as the independent counsel investigating the president and the first lady. Judge Starr resigned recently. Mr. Ray spoke briefly with reporters.;” C-SPAN.com, Oct. 18, 1999

167 Calculated by USInflationCalculator.com on March 21, 2018. The “US Inflation Calculator uses the latest US government CPI data published on March 13 to adjust for inflation and calculate the cumulative inflation rate through February 2018.”

170 “Fiske Named Special Counsel In Clinton Probe,” Articles.ChicagoTribune.com, Jan. 20, 1994
Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

Fiske found no link between Whitewater and Foster’s death.\(^\text{171}\) When Clinton signed the Independent Counsel Reauthorization Act of 1994, a panel of judges independently chose Kenneth Starr to continue the Whitewater investigation that ultimately included “Travelgate” on March, 22, 1996\(^\text{172}\); Filegate, on June 21, 1996\(^\text{173}\); and the Monica Lewinsky affair on Jan. 16, 1998.\(^\text{174}\) President Bill Clinton was impeached on Dec. 19, 1998, in relation to the Lewinsky affair.\(^\text{175}\)

2. Special Prosecutor/Independent Counsel/Special Counsel
   a. Robert B. Fiske, Jr. – Attorney General-appointed Special Counsel
   b. Kenneth Starr – First Independent Counsel under the Independent Counsel Reauthorization Act of 1994
   c. Robert Ray – Independent Counsel after Starr stepped down
   d. Julie F. Thomas – Independent Counsel who succeeded Ray to close out Whitewater investigation\(^\text{176}\)

3. Dates of Investigation
   a. START (Fiske investigation) – On Jan. 20, 1994, Fiske was appointed Whitewater special counsel at Clinton’s request on Jan. 12, 1994.\(^\text{177}\) At a press briefing with Attorney General Janet Reno, where she announced Fiske’s appointment, Fiske defined his charter as broad, and potentially covering other matters, including the death of Vince Foster, which Fiske ruled a suicide on July 1, 1994.\(^\text{178}\)

   “The specific language authorizes me to investigate whether any individuals or entities have committed a violation of any federal criminal law relating in any way to President William Jefferson Clinton’s or Mrs. Hillary Rodham Clinton’s relationships with

---

\(^{172}\) “Whitewater prosecutor to look into 'Travelgate','’ CNN.com, March 22, 1996

\(^{174}\) “A Chronology: Key Moments In The Clinton-Lewinsky Saga,” CNN.com, accessed on March 21, 2018

\(^{175}\) “1998: President Clinton impeached,” History.com, accessed on March 21, 2018

\(^{176}\) “Independent Counsels Appointed Under the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, Costs and Results of Investigations,” online at EveryCRSreport.com, June 8, 2006

\(^{177}\) “Whitewater Timeline,” Academic.Brooklyn.cuny.edu, accessed on March 21, 2018

\(^{178}\) David Von Drehle and Howard Schneider, “Foster's Death a Suicide,” WashingtonPost.com, July 1, 1994
Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

Madison Guaranty Savings and Loan Association, Whitewater Development Corporation, or Capital Management Services.\(^{179}\)

b. END (Fiske investigation) – On Oct. 6, 1994, Fiske stepped away from the investigation. He had been replaced by Kenneth W. Starr on Aug. 5, 1994, after Clinton signed the Independent Counsel Reauthorization Act of 1994 and Reno was denied her request to have Fiske re-appointed “by a three-judge U.S. Court of Appeals.”\(^ {180}\) According to the court’s order, Fiske was replaced because he was appointed by the “incumbent Administration” and needed to be replaced for the “appearance of independence.”\(^ {181}\) During his tenure, Fiske conducted the first ever deposition of “a sitting president and first lady.”\(^ {182}\)

c. START (Starr investigation) – On Aug. 5, 1994, Starr was appointed to continue the Whitewater investigation “by a three-judge U.S. Court of Appeals.”\(^ {183}\)

d. END (Starr investigation) / START (Ray investigation) – On Oct. 18, 1999, "Kenneth Starr steps down as independent counsel. Robert Ray, an experienced federal prosecutor, is sworn in as his successor.”\(^ {184}\)

e. END (Ray investigation) / START (Thomas investigation) – On March 12, 2002, Ray resigned, and Julie F. Thomas became the last independent counsel on the Whitewater investigation.\(^ {185}\) On March 20, 2002,\(^ {186}\) Ray released his final report on Whitewater that exonerated the Clintons.\(^ {187}\)

f. END (Thomas investigation) – On March 23, 2004, the office was terminated.\(^ {188}\)

\(^{182}\) “Chronology: From Hope, Arkansas to the White House,” PBS.org, accessed on March 21, 2018

\(^{184}\) “A Whitewater Chronology,” WSJ.com, May 28, 2003

\(^{186}\) Pete Yost, “Final Whitewater report rips Clintons, but finds no evidence of wrongdoing,” JournalTimes.com, March 21, 2002

\(^{187}\) Pete Yost, “Final Whitewater report rips Clintons, but finds no evidence of wrongdoing,” JournalTimes.com, March 21, 2002

4. Conclusion

a. Oct. 8, 1998

"The House votes 258-176 to open an impeachment inquiry into the President, only the third such proceeding in U.S. history. Thirty-one Democrats join Republicans in voting for the inquiry."

b. June 30, 1999 – The Independent Counsel law expires during the Whitewater/Lewinsky investigations.

"Now responsibility for investigating official misconduct reverts back to the Justice Department where it was during Watergate and before. The attorney general will have the power to both hire and fire special counsels."

"With the congressional impeachment proceedings against Clinton resulting from the Lewinsky investigation, it was the Democrats’ turn to rail against the independent counsel law, pointing to the fact that special investigations have no limits on cost, length and scope, and saying Starr was far overzealous in pursuing the Clintons."

c. Jan. 19, 2001 – President Clinton admits making false statements and surrenders law license for five years.

d. Jan. 20, 2001

"Hours before ending his term in office, President Clinton issues 140 pardons. Included on the list is the Clintons’ former Whitewater Development Co. partner, Susan McDougal."
5. Cost of Investigation

a. According to a WashingtonPost.com article, the Whitewater investigation total was $70 million dollars.\(^{195}\)

b. The Independent Counsel FY 2008 Performance Budget sets the cost at $55,105,992\(^{196}\) for the Starr, Ray, Thomas investigations:

   “Violation of any federal criminal law relating to what has become known as the ‘Whitewater Affair’, President Clinton’s relationship with a former White House intern, the White House travel office, misuse of FBI files, and other matters -- several defendants involved.”\(^{197}\)

c. Other estimates:

   “According to reports by GAO, the cost of Independent Counsels Thomas’, Ray’s and Starr’s portion of the investigation, through September 30, 2005, has been $73,597,345. In addition, GAO has reported that Robert B. Fiske, Jr., spent $6,073,000, on the earlier ‘Whitewater’ investigation prior to Mr. Starr’s appointment.”\(^{198}\)

d. For this report, the $55,105,992 for the Starr, Ray, and Thomas investigations was added to the $6,073,000 investigation, for a total cost of $61,178,992 for the Whitewater investigations.

---

\(^{195}\) Callum Borchers, “Special prosecutors are a big deal. Their results sometimes aren’t.” WashingtonPost.com, May 17, 2017

\(^{196}\) “FY 2008 Performance Budget Independent Counsel Congressional Justification,” Justice.gov, accessed on March 21, 2018

\(^{197}\) “FY 2008 Performance Budget Independent Counsel Congressional Justification,” Justice.gov, accessed on March 21, 2018

\(^{198}\) “Independent Counsels Appointed Under the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, Costs and Results of Investigations - Updated June 8, 2006,” online at DigitalLibrary.unt.edu, accessed on March 21, 2018
Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

7. George W. Bush: CIA Leak/Plamegate

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Start / End</th>
<th>Total Cost of Investigation</th>
<th>Name of Investigator / Title</th>
<th>Appointed By</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>12/30/2003 / 12/11/2007</td>
<td>$2.58 million</td>
<td>Patrick Fitzgerald / Special Counsel / Special Prosecutor</td>
<td>Deputy Attorney General James Comey</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The W. Bush investigation ran from Dec. 30, 2003, to Dec. 11, 2007, for a total of 1,443 days. The total cost of the W. Bush investigation in March 13, 2017, dollars was $3,050,079.58.

1. Summary of the Investigation

a. After CIA agent Valerie Plame was identified by name in a syndicated column on Sept. 30, 2003, the Justice Department launched an investigation. On Dec. 30, 2003, Patrick J. Fitzgerald was appointed as special counsel to investigate the leak. High-level George W. Bush admin officials were investigated, and “the investigation also touched on presidential adviser Karl Rove,” eventually resulting in the prosecution of Vice President Richard B. Cheney’s Chief of Staff I. Lewis “Lacey” Libby, and the subsequent commutation of his perjury and obstruction of justice convictions from President Bush (Libby received a full pardon from President Donald Trump on April 13, 2018).

---

199 Multiple sources for this description of the investigation including NBCnews.com, Time.com, RollingStone.com, and MotherJones.com

200 Department of Justice Press Conference transcript, “Appointment of special prosecutor to oversee investigation into alleged leak of CIA agent identity and recusal of Attorney General Ashcroft from the investigation,” online at FAS.org, Dec. 30, 2003

201 Total number of days for investigations calculated online: https://www.timeanddate.com/date/duration.html

202 “Leak probe cost $2.6 million,” ChicagoTribune.com, April 1, 2008

203 Calculated by USInflationCalculator.com on March 21, 2018. The “US Inflation Calculator uses the latest US government CPI data published on March 13 to adjust for inflation and calculate the cumulative inflation rate through February 2018.”

204 “Timeline: The CIA Leak Case,” NPR.org, July 2, 2007

206 “Leak probe cost $2.6 million,” ChicagoTribune.com, April 1, 2008

207 “Cheney's top aide indicted; CIA leak probe continues,” CNN.com, Oct. 29, 2005

2. Special Prosecutor/Independent Counsel/Special Counsel
   a. Patrick Fitzgerald – Special / Counsel / Special Prosecutor

3. Dates of Investigation the appointment of Patrick J. Fitzgerald as special counsel in charge of the “investigation into alleged leak of CIA agent identity.” Attorney General John Ashcroft had recused himself “based on the totality of the circumstances and the facts and evidence developed at this stage of the investigation,” according to Comey during a Dec. 30, 2003, Department of Justice press conference. On June 24, 2004, Fitzgerald questioned Bush for more than an hour, but Bush was not put under oath.
   b. END – On Dec. 11, 2007, “the administration official [Libby] dropped his appeal of his convictions.”

      “The activities of the special counsel were, for all practical purposes concluded as of March 2008, but the office of the special counsel will continue for limited purposes, such as responding to congressional requests for information.”

4. Conclusion
   a. On why he wouldn’t issue a final report, in 2005 Fitzgerald said:

      “I think what people may be confused about is that reports used to be issued by independent counsels. And one of the complaints about the independent counsel statute was that an ordinary citizen, when investigated, they're charged with a crime or they're not; they're not charged with a crime, people don't talk about it. Because of the interest in making sure that -- well, there's an interest in independent counsels to making sure those investigations were done thoroughly but then people ended up issuing reports for people not charged. And one of the criticisms leveled was that you should not issue reports about people who are not charged with a crime. That statute lapsed. I'm not an independent counsel, and I do not have the authority to write a report, and, frankly, I don't think I should have that authority. I think we should conduct this like any other criminal investigation: charge someone or be quiet.”

---

211 “On December 11, 2007 the administration official dropped his appeal of his convictions. This matter is now concluded for all practical purposes, but the office of special counsel will continue for limited purposes, such as responding to Congressional requests for information,” according to a GAO Report dated March 2008 titled “FINANCIAL AUDIT: Special Counsel Expenditures for the Six Months Ended September 30, 2007.”

b. Oct. 28, 2005 - Libby is indicted.214 On June 5, 2007, Libby is sentenced to 30 months in prison for perjury and obstruction of justice, and resigns as Cheney's chief of staff.215 Bush commuted his sentence on July 2, 2007.216 Libby received a full pardon from President Donald Trump on April 13, 2018. 217

5. Cost of Investigation

a. $2.58 million,218 according to a ChicagoTribune.com article on April 1, 2008.

---

214 “Cheney's top aide indicted; CIA leak probe continues,” CNN.com, Oct. 29, 2005
218 “Leak probe cost $2.6 million,” ChicagoTribune.com, April 1, 2008
8. Donald J. Trump: Trump-Russia Collusion Probe

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Start / End [# of Days]</th>
<th>Total Cost of Investigation</th>
<th>Name of Investigator / Title</th>
<th>Appointed By</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>5/17/2017 / 3/22/2019</td>
<td>The final reported cost of the investigation from May 17, 2017, to May 31, 2019, was $31,773,751, for a total of 745 days of DOJ expenditure reporting.</td>
<td>Robert S. Mueller III / Special Counsel</td>
<td>Acting Attorney General Rod J. Rosenstein</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The Trump investigation ran from May 17, 2017, to March 22, 2019, (when Robert S. Mueller submitted his report) for a total of 675 days.

1. Summary of the Investigation
   a. Acting Attorney General Rod J. Rosenstein appointed Robert S. Mueller III special counsel to conduct an investigation into, among other things, “any links and/or coordination between the Russian government and individuals associated with the campaign of President Donald Trump…”

2. Special Prosecutor/Independent Counsel/Special Counsel
   a. Robert S. Mueller III – Special Counsel

3. Dates of Investigation
   a. START – On May 17, 2017, Robert S. Mueller III was appointed by Acting Attorney General Rod J. Rosenstein to serve as special counsel.

---

219 “Special Counsel’s Office: Related Court Documents,” United States Department of Justice website Justice.gov, accessed on March 21, 2018
221 “Special Counsel’s Office: Related Court Documents,” United States Department of Justice website Justice.gov, accessed on March 21, 2018
223 Total number of days for investigations calculated online: https://www.timeanddate.com/date/duration.html
225 “Special Counsel’s Office: Related Court Documents,” Justice.gov, accessed on March 21, 2018
Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

b. END – March 22, 2019, when Mueller “delivered his final report to Attorney General William Barr.”226

4. Related Court Documents as of April 4, 2019,227 from the United States Department of Justice website:

a. U.S. v. Roger Jason Stone, Jr. (1:19-cr-18, District of Columbia): Roger Jason Stone, Jr., 66, of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, was arrested in Fort Lauderdale on Jan. 25, 2019, following an indictment by a federal grand jury on Jan. 24, 2019, in the District of Columbia. The indictment, which was unsealed upon arrest, contains seven counts: one count of obstruction of an official proceeding, five counts of false statements, and one count of witness tampering.

c. U.S. v. Paul J. Manafort, Jr. (1:17-cr-201, District of Columbia): Paul J. Manafort, Jr., of Alexandria, Va., pleaded guilty on September 14, 2018, to a superseding criminal information filed … in the District of Columbia, which includes conspiracy against the United States (conspiracy to commit money laundering, tax fraud, failing to file Foreign Bank Account Reports and Violating the Foreign Agents Registration Act, and lying and misrepresenting to the Department of Justice) and conspiracy to obstruct justice (witness tampering). On March 13, 2019, Manafort was sentenced to serve 73 months in prison, with 30 months to run concurrent with his sentence in the Eastern District of Virginia.

e. U.S. v. Konstantin Kilimnik (1:17-cr-201, District of Columbia): A federal grand jury in the District of Columbia returned a third superseding indictment on June 8,

---

227 “Special Counsel's Office: Related Court Documents,” United States Department of Justice website Justice.gov, accessed on April 4, 2019
2018, against Konstantin Kilimnik, of Moscow, Russia. Kilimnik is charged with conspiracy to obstruct justice and obstruction of justice.

g. U.S. v. Paul J. Manafort, Jr., and Richard W. Gates III (1:18-cr-83, Eastern District of Virginia): Paul J. Manafort, Jr., of Alexandria, Va., and Richard W. Gates III, of Richmond, Va., were indicted by a federal grand jury on Feb. 22, 2018, in the Eastern District of Virginia. The indictment contains 32 counts: 16 counts related to false individual income tax returns, seven counts of failure to file reports of foreign bank and financial accounts, five counts of bank fraud conspiracy, and four counts of bank fraud. On March 1, 2018, the court granted a motion to dismiss without prejudice the charges against Gates, following his guilty plea in a related case in the District of Columbia (1:17-cr-201). On Aug. 21, 2018, a federal jury found Manafort guilty on eight counts: counts 1-5, subscribing to a false individual income tax return for tax years 2010-2014; count 12, failure to file reports of foreign bank and financial accounts for year 2012; count 25, bank fraud; and count 27, bank fraud. The court declared a mistrial on 10 counts (counts 11, 13-14, 24, 26, 28-32). As part of his plea agreement on Sept. 14, 2018, Manafort admitted his guilt of the remaining counts against him in this case. On March 7, 2019, Manafort was sentenced to 47 months in prison and ordered to pay a $50,000 fine.

h. U.S. v. Alex van der Zwaan (1:18-cr-31, District of Columbia): Alex van der Zwaan, of London, pleaded guilty on Feb. 20, 2018, to making false statements to FBI agents, in violation of 18 U.S.C. 1001. Van der Zwaan was sentenced on April 3, 2018, to serve 30 days in prison and pay a $20,000 fine.

Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

5. Conclusion: Excerpts from Attorney General William P. Barr’s “main findings of the special counsel’s two-year investigation into Russian interference in the 2016 presidential election.”

“The Special Counsel's investigation did not find that the Trump campaign or anyone associated with it conspired or coordinated with Russia in its efforts to influence the 2016 U.S. presidential election. As the report states: ‘[T]he investigation did not establish that members of the Trump Campaign conspired or coordinated with the Russian government in its election interference activities.’ … The Special Counsel therefore did not draw a conclusion - one way or the other – as to whether the examined conduct constituted obstruction. Instead, for each of the relevant actions investigated, the report sets out evidence on both sides of the question and leaves unresolved what the Special Counsel views as ‘difficult issues’ of law and fact concerning whether the President's actions and intent could be viewed as obstruction. The Special Counsel states that ‘while this report does not conclude that the President committed a crime, it also does not exonerate him.’"
Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

6. Cost of Investigation

   b. Costs include those reported by the Special Counsel’s Office, and additional costs included in the Statement of Expenditures reports as “DOJ [Department of Justice] component expenses.”

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Reporting Period</th>
<th>Special Counsel Cost to Date</th>
<th>DOJ Component Expenses</th>
<th>Total Investigation Costs</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Oct. 1, 2017, through March 31, 2018</td>
<td>$4,506,624231</td>
<td>$5,476,000232</td>
<td>$9,982,624</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>April 1, 2018, through Sept. 30, 2018</td>
<td>$4,567,533233</td>
<td>$3,906,000234</td>
<td>$8,473,533</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Oct. 1, 2018, through May 31, 2019</td>
<td>$4,120,899235</td>
<td>$2,437,000236</td>
<td>$6,557,899</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

[Note: Barack H. Obama was never the subject of a special investigation.]

There have been nine presidential administrations since the beginning of Watergate to the date of this report, from Nixon to Trump. The only presidential administration that was not part of an investigation by a special prosecutor/independent counsel/special counsel was that of President Barack H. Obama.]

---

230 “Another $3.5 million has separately been spent by law enforcement personnel working on the investigation but who do not directly report to Mueller, DOJ said.” Laura Jarrett, “Russia probe cost $7 million over 5 months, DOJ says,” CNN.com, Dec. 5, 2017

231 “U.S. Department of Justice Special Counsel’s Office Statement of Expenditures October 1, 2017 through March 31, 2018” U.S. Department of Justice, Justice.gov, May 31, 2018

232 “Although neither legally required nor reported in prior Special Counsels’ Statements of Expenditures, DOJ components that support the SCO were asked to track expenditures attributable to the investigations. The expenditures for this period totaled $5,476,000, which approximates expenditures the components would have incurred for the investigations irrespective of the existence of the SCO.” From “U.S. Department of Justice Special Counsel’s Office Statement of Expenditures October 1, 2017 through March 31, 2018” U.S. Department of Justice, Justice.gov, May 31, 2018

233 “U.S. Department of Justice Special Counsel’s Office Statement of Expenditures April 1, 2018, through September 30, 2018,” U.S. Department of Justice, Justice.gov, accessed on April 3, 2019

234 “Although neither legally required nor reported in prior Special Counsels’ Statements of Expenditures, DOJ components that support the SCO were asked to track expenditures attributable to the investigations. The expenditures for this period totaled $3,906,000, which approximates expenditures the components would have incurred for the investigations irrespective of the existence of the SCO.” From “U.S. Department of Justice Special Counsel’s Office Statement of Expenditures April 1, 2018, through September 30, 2018,” U.S. Department of Justice, Justice.gov, accessed on April 3, 2019

235 “Special Counsel’s Office Statement of Expenditures, October 1, 2018, through May 31, 2019,” U.S. Department of Justice, Justice.gov, accessed on Aug. 8, 2019

236 “Special Counsel’s Office Statement of Expenditures, October 1, 2018, through May 31, 2019,” U.S. Department of Justice, Justice.gov, accessed on Aug. 8, 2019

Page 44 of 50
V. Conclusion

The Mueller investigation took 675 days, which does not put it in the top three for the most days for a special presidential investigation: 3,716 for Whitewater; 2,420 for Iran-Contra; and 1,464 for Watergate. Although reporting of costs for each investigation varies and they are not apple to apple equivalents, the Mueller investigation into the Trump campaign was the fourth overall costliest; by per-day costs, it was first.

The metrics from the charts and information in this work suggest that the time and costs of the various presidential investigations don’t follow any discernible or clear patterns. Given the complexities of some of the investigations, questions not covered in this report may emerge from it, such as:

- Was the $83 million for the Clinton investigation too much or was the $650,000 spent on the H.W. Bush investigation too little?
- Were the 3,716 days spent on the Clinton investigations more important to our country than the 1,443 days spent on the W. Bush investigation?
- Were all or some of the investigations politically motivated at the start?
- Were any of the investigations extended or underfunded or cut short for political reasons?
- Should the counsel on the investigations be investigated? If so, by whom?

We hope this report will add a bit of sunlight to the somewhat arcane world of special prosecutor / independent counsel / special counsel investigations.

Your thoughts, comments or criticisms of this report would be appreciated.
VI. Appendix

The following is a list of the other 22 special investigations by a special prosecutor/independent counsel/special counsel that were not part of the research on the eight special investigations in this report; those investigations included possible offence(s) tied directly or indirectly to the president in office, and the investigation of President Gerald R. Ford which began with the investigation of President Nixon.

The 22 special investigations in this Appendix are either prior to 1973, or when the investigations seemingly involved personal behavior or actions not tied directly or indirectly to administration business or action.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>U.S. Presidential Administration under which the Special Investigation Started</th>
<th>Summary of Special Prosecutor / Independent Counsel / Special Counsel investigations that are either prior to 1973, or when the investigations seemingly involved personal behavior or actions not tied directly or indirectly to administration business or action.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2. Garfield</td>
<td>1881: President James A. Garfield appointed William A. Cook as special prosecutor/special counsel to investigate alleged bribery of post office officials and postal routes, which was known as the Star Route Scandals.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Roosevelt</td>
<td>1903: President Theodore Roosevelt appointed Charles J. Bonaparte and Holmes Conrad as special prosecutors to investigate alleged bribery involving post office officials.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Roosevelt</td>
<td>1903: U.S. Attorney General Philander Knox appointed Francis J. Heney as special prosecutor to investigate alleged land fraud deals that became known as the Oregon Land Fraud Trials.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

238 Callum Borchers, “Special prosecutors are a big deal. Their results sometimes aren’t.” WashingtonPost.com, May 17, 2017
240 “What is a special counsel? Timeline of appointments,” FoxNews.com, May 18, 2017
Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>U.S. Presidential Administration under which the Special Investigation Started</th>
<th>Summary of Special Prosecutor / Independent Counsel / Special Counsel investigations that are either prior to 1973, or when the investigations seemingly involved personal behavior or actions not tied directly or indirectly to administration business or action.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A.</td>
<td>B.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Truman</td>
<td>1952: President Harry S. Truman appointed Special Assistant Attorney General Newbold Morris as special prosecutor[^241] to look into corruption at the IRS, but Morris started with an investigation into Department of Justice officials, which resulted in his firing by Attorney General J. Howard McGrath.[^242]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6. Carter</td>
<td>1979: A three-judge federal panel[^243] appointed Arthur H. Christy as special prosecutor to investigate Hamilton Jordan, Carter’s chief of staff, for alleged cocaine use.[^244]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7. Carter</td>
<td>1980: A three-judge federal panel appointed Gerald Gallinghouse as special prosecutor to investigate Timothy Kraft, Carter’s national campaign manager, for alleged cocaine use.[^245]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8. Reagan</td>
<td>1981: A three-judge federal panel appointed Leon Silverman as special prosecutor to investigate allegations of corruption against Secretary of Labor Raymond J. Donovan.[^246]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9. Reagan</td>
<td>1984: A three-judge federal panel appointed Jacob A. Stein as special prosecutor to investigate alleged corruption by Edwin Meese, who was being considered for attorney general.[^247]</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

[^243]: “This three-judge panel, formally entitled the ‘Division for the Purpose of Appointing Independent Counsels,’ is better known today as simply the ‘Special Division.’” Jim Mokhiber, “What is the Special Division?” PBS.org, accessed on April 2, 2018. “Although the Special Division is in no way involved with the judicial work of the D.C. Circuit, Congress created the Special Division as a ‘division of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia…’” according to “The Judicial Council for the District of Columbia Circuit … In the Matter of a Charge of Judicial Misconduct or Disability Judicial Council Complaint No. 99-1,” Cad.uscourts.gov, filed March 24, 1999

[^247]: Judi Hasson, “Former Watergate defense lawyer Jacob A. Stein was named...,” UPI.com, April 2, 1984
Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>U.S. Presidential Administration under which the Special Investigation Started</th>
<th>Summary of Special Prosecutor / Independent Counsel / Special Counsel investigations that are either prior to 1973, or when the investigations seemingly involved personal behavior or actions not tied directly or indirectly to administration business or action.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A.</td>
<td>B.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10. Reagan</td>
<td>1986: A three-judge federal panel appointed James C. McKay as independent counsel to investigate allegations of false testimony by Theodore Olson, a former assistant attorney general, regarding EPA documents.(^{248})</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11. Reagan</td>
<td>1986: A three-judge federal panel appointed Whitney North Seymour Jr. as independent counsel to investigate allegations that Michael K. Deaver, former White House aide, was involved in improper lobbying practices.(^{249})</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>12. Reagan</td>
<td>1987: A three-judge federal panel appointed Carl S. Rauh as independent counsel(^{250}) to investigate allegations involving the finances of Lawrence Wallace, former assistant attorney general.(^{251})</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>13. Reagan</td>
<td>1987: A three-judge federal panel appointed James McKay to investigate allegations of illegal lobbying by Lyn Nofziger, Reagan’s former political director.(^{252})</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14. H.W. Bush</td>
<td>1990: A three-judge federal panel appointed Arlin M. Adams as independent prosecutor to investigate allegations that Samuel Pierce, former HUD secretary, defrauded the government.(^{253})</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

\(^{250}\) “Carl S. Rauh,” Carl Rauh Law Offices PLLC, RauhLaw.com, accessed on March 29, 2018

\(^{252}\) Leslie Maitland Werner, “Counsel Named In Nofziger Ethics Case,” NYTimes.com. “A version of this article appears in print on February 3, 1987, on Page A00020 of the National edition with the headline: Counsel Named In Nofziger Ethics Case.”

Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>U.S. Presidential Administration under which the Special Investigation Started</th>
<th>Summary of Special Prosecutor / Independent Counsel / Special Counsel investigations that are either prior to 1973, or when the investigations seemingly involved personal behavior or actions not tied directly or indirectly to administration business or action.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A.</td>
<td>B.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>15. H.W. Bush</td>
<td>1992: A three-judge federal panel appointed Joseph E. DiGenova as independent counsel(^{254}) to investigate allegations that Janet G. Mullins, a H.W. Bush White House assistant, made false statements and an investigation into the search of Bill Clinton’s passport files.(^ {255})</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16. Clinton</td>
<td>1994: A three-judge federal panel appointed Donald C. Smaltz as independent counsel to investigate allegations between Agriculture Secretary Michael Espy and Tyson Foods Inc.(^ {256})</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>17. Clinton</td>
<td>1995: A three-judge federal panel appointed David M. Barrett as independent counsel to investigate allegations that Henry G. Cisneros, head of HUD, lied to the FBI.(^ {257})</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>18. Clinton</td>
<td>1995: A three-judge federal panel appointed Daniel S. Pearson as independent counsel to investigate allegations of the illegal private financial dealings of Commerce Secretary Ronald H. Brown.(^ {258})</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>19. Clinton</td>
<td>1996: A three-judge federal panel appointed Ralph I. Lancaster as special prosecutor to investigate allegations of bribery by Secretary of Labor Alexis Herman.(^ {259})</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>20. Clinton</td>
<td>1996: A three-judge federal panel appointed Curtis Emery von Kann as independent counsel(^ {260}) to investigate allegations of improper fund-raising by Eli J. Segal when he was head of Americorps.(^ {261})</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

\(^{256}\) David Johnston, “Panel Names Chief Counsel For Inquiry In Espy Case,” NYTimes.com. “A version of this article appears in print on September 10, 1994, on Page 1001006 of the National edition with the headline: Panel Names Chief Counsel For Inquiry In Espy Case.”

\(^{257}\) David Johnston, “Lawyer Linked to 80's HUD Scandal Is Named to Investigate Housing Chief,” NYTimes.com. “A version of this article appears in print on May 25, 1995, on Page B00010 of the National edition with the headline: Lawyer Linked to 80's HUD Scandal Is Named to Investigate Housing Chief.”

\(^{258}\) Robert L. Jackson, “Ex-Prosecutor to Probe Ronald Brown Finances : Ethics: Special counsel Daniel Pearson will examine if commerce secretary filed inaccurate disclosure reports.” LATimes.com, July 7, 1995

\(^{259}\) “Private Attorney Chosen To Investigate Alexis Herman,” CNN.com, March 26, 1998

\(^{260}\) “Testimony of Honorable Curtis Emery von Kann Before the Senate Committee on Governmental Affairs,” online PDF titled vonKann.pdf at Homeland Security & Governmental Affairs website, Senate.gov, dated Feb. 24, 1999

Special Investigations Involving U.S. Presidents Since 1973

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>U.S. Presidential Administration under which the Special Investigation Started</th>
<th>Summary of Special Prosecutor / Independent Counsel / Special Counsel investigations that are either prior to 1973, or when the investigations seemingly involved personal behavior or actions not tied directly or indirectly to administration business or action.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>21. Clinton</td>
<td>1998: A three-judge federal panel appointed Carol Elder Bruce as independent counsel to investigate allegations that Interior Secretary Bruce E. Babbitt(^{262}) made false statements regarding an Indian casino request.(^{263})</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>22. Clinton</td>
<td>1999: Attorney General Janet Reno appointed John C. Danforth(^{264}) as special counsel to &quot;head a review into events surrounding the assault on the Branch Davidian compound in Waco, Texas.&quot;(^{265})</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

\(^{262}\) "Carol Elder Bruce," Murphy & McGonigle, mmlawus.com, accessed on March 29, 2018

\(^{263}\) Robert L. Jackson and Ronald J. Ostrow, "Special Counsel Named in Babbitt Probe," March 20, 1998

\(^{264}\) David Johnston, "Ex-Senator Picked By Reno To Head New Waco Inquiry," NYTimes.com, Sept. 9, 1999

\(^{265}\) News Release, "Attorney General Reno Selects Former Senator John Danforth As Special Counsel To Head Waco Review," Justice.gov, Sept. 9, 1999